

Emley Clarence v Shepley
 Drakes Huddersfield League Twenty20 Group Match
 Tuesday 22 June 2010
 The Welfare Ground, Emley

Shepley eventually secured a comfortable win over a weakened Emley Clarence side, despite not taking the game terribly seriously. Shepley's four main bowlers all played, but contributed just two overs between them, whilst top batsman SP Singh did not even don his pads. Jamie Dearnley (3-19) and Sam Denton (2-13) bowled well in the opening spell, Ian Walker made a promising start at first team level and Liam Wiles tried out his leg spin. Emley reached 119 off their 20 overs. Shepley's reply started badly when makeshift opener Sam Denton was out in the first over, but eventually Sam Haigh and Danny Glover overcame the low sun shining in their eyes to see their team home.
