

Shepley v Slaithwaite
Drakes Huddersfield League Premiership
Sunday 28 August 2011
Marsh Lane, Shepley

Shepley comfortably completed the double over Slaithwaite on a bitterly cold August Bank Holiday weekend at Marsh Lane. An untimely shower delayed the start by forty minutes, meaning a 44 over game. Danny Glover won the toss and elected to bat, with Tom Denton and SP Singh putting on 108 for the first wicket before Singh's departure for 42. Denton was in imperious form and added a further 101 runs with Tim Rees, Liam Wiles and Amar Rashid before finally being out for 114. His innings contained 17 fours and 3 sixes and was, remarkably, his first league century of the season. Shepley's innings ended on an imposing 264-7.

Slaithwaite's reply got off to a poor start, as both openers went to the Glover boys in the first three overs. Craig Glover took three top order wickets, while Danny took out the middle order, before Amar Rashid wrapped up the tail. The only resistance came from a ninth wicket stand of 57 between Harry Bryson and Freddie Garside, which delayed the inevitable and put the Shepley fielders in danger of frostbite. Slaithwaite were finally out for 143 giving Shepley a victory by 121 runs and six points.
